Socrates and Plato:

Forerunners of Christian and Spiritist Ideas

“The occupation of the philosopher is to care for the soul less in regard to the present than to life in eternity. Since the soul is immortal, it would be wise to live our lives with this fact in mind.”

- Source: Plato’s Phaedo

“Who is my mother, and who are my brothers? (…)
For whoever does the will of my Father in Heaven is my brother, sister and mother.”

- Mark 3:31-35

Psychotherapist

“IT is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.”

- Ch. 14, item 8

Jesus Christ in the Spiritist View

“Who is my mother, and who are my brothers? (…)
For whoever does the will of my Father in Heaven is my brother, sister and mother.”

- Mark 3:31-35

Human Being

“His superiority over men was only of his spiritual nature, which absolutely controlled matter, and his perispirit (…).”

- Genesis, Allan Kardec, Ch. XIV, item 9

Medium

“He was a medium of God.”

- Genesis, Allan Kardec, Ch. XIV, item 9

Family Ties

“Real family ties are based on empathy and the affinity of ideas developed before, during and after incarnations.”

- Ch. 16, item 9

Reincarnation

“I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh. The spirit gives birth to spirit.”

- John 3:3-5

“Water represents the essence of matter, just as Spirit represents the essence of intelligence.”

- Ch. 4, item 9

Prayer is Thought Transfer

“Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

- Mark, 11:24

“Prayer is an invocation. Through prayer we establish a mental relationship with the being we address. A prayer may have three purposes:

• Ask
• Give thanks
• Praise”

- Ch. 27, item 9

Good Person

“Truly good people comply with the laws of justice, love, and charity in their purest form.”

- Ch. 17

Good Spiritist

“True spiritists can be recognized by their moral transformation and by the efforts they make to overcome their bad tendencies.”

- Ch. 17

 Causes of Suffering

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.”

- Matthew, 5:4

“Whether the cause is in the present or a previous life, our misfortune can be traced back to a wrong done in the past.”

- Ch. 8, item 7

Unshakable faith is that which can stand face to face with reason in all epochs of humanity.”

- Allan Kardec
